

SLO 2: Multiple Ways of Writing

This semester was a balance between two totally different styles. The Gym Artifact let me be more descriptive and analytical, while the IMRaD essay forced me into a technical, professional lane. Learning to switch gears between creative analysis and rigid academic structure was the main takeaway for me here.